1.3. Introduction to the ASEAN-Australia Centre Leadership Program – Emerging Leaders Programs

The ASEAN-Australia Centre Leadership Program (the Program) supports the ASEAN-Australia Centre's work to build a network of future ASEAN leaders with strong connections to Australia, who will drive positive change across Australia and Southeast Asia. It responds to the call in Invested Australia's Southeast Economic Strategy to 2040 (Invested) for continued investment in Australia's education offerings, advocacy, alumni and scholarships to drive Australia's economic and people-to-people connections with Southeast Asia.

The Program consists of two tiers of activities in Australia: Short Courses and Emerging Leaders Programs. The Emerging Leaders Programs aim to promote stronger relations between Australia and ASEAN countries, by deepening mutual understanding and capabilities across a range of sectors and by also strengthening Southeast Asia literacy in Australia. This RFT is for one of the Emerging Leaders Programs – Leveraging Regional Trade Architecture.

1.4. Document Structure

This RFT consists of the following sections:

- Section 1: Introduction
- Section 2: Tender conditions
- Section 3: Tender requirements and attachments (including Statutory Declaration)
- Section 4: Scope of Services
- Section 5: Selection criteria and information required for technical assessment

- Section 6: Selection criteria and information required for price assessment
- Attachments 1 –8: Note that Attachment 5 (Financial Proposal and Indicative Budget), Attachment 7 (Emerging Leader Program Provider Handbook), and Attachment 8 (Palladium Subcontractor Agreement Template) are separate files.

Tenderers should carefully read and familiarise themselves with the RFT documentation, including all attachments to ensure compliance with the Tender requirements and ensure they can execute a contract without delay. Tenders deemed non-conforming by Palladium may be rejected.

1.5. Definitions

In this RFT, the following terms have the following meanings:

“DFAT” means the Australian Government, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade;

“Emerging Leaders Program” means the Emerging Leaders Program to be delivered under the ASEAN-Australia Centre Leadership Program

“the Commonwealth” means the Commonwealth of Australia and its implementing agency, the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade;

“Contract” means Palladium’s draft Subcontractor Agreement or Subcontractor Agreement;

“RFT” means this document (Request for Tender), Palladium’s draft Subcontractor Agreement and any Addenda issued by Palladium prior to the closing date and time for the submission of Tenders;

“participant(s)” means people in receipt of an ASEAN-Australia Centre Leadership Program Emerging Leaders Program.

2. Tender Conditions

2.1. Corrections and Additions

If a Tenderer finds any discrepancy, error or omission in the RFT, has a question, or wishes to make an enquiry concerning the RFT, it is to notify Palladium in writing and in accordance with Section 1.2 closing date for queries. Where appropriate, answers to any such notices or questions will be given by Palladium in the form of Addenda and will be issued to all registered Tenderers.

Palladium may amend any part of this RFT and attachments prior to the closing date for tenders (Section 1.2). Any amendment to, or clarification of, any aspect of the RFT will be issued in the form of an Addenda and provided to all registered Tenderers before the closing date for tenders (Section 1.2). Such Addenda will become part of the RFT.

Tenderers' attention is drawn to paragraph 2.19 regarding Addenda.

2.2. Expenses

Tenderers are responsible at their own expense for:

- making all arrangements and obtaining and considering all information relating to the preparation, delivery and lodgement of their Tender;
- answering any queries and providing any further information sought by Palladium;
- dealing with any issues, including disputes, that may arise out of the RFT process; and
- engaging in any further process, subsequent negotiation or discussions with Palladium that may result from the RFT.

2.3. Ownership of Tenders

All Tenders become the property of DFAT on submission.

Such Intellectual Property (IP) rights as may exist in the information contained in Tenders will remain the property of the Tenderer.

The Tenderer authorises Palladium to copy, adapt, amend, disclose or do anything else necessary (in Palladium's sole discretion) to all materials (including that which contains IP rights of the Tenderer or other parties) contained in the Tender for the purpose of its evaluation of Tenders, negotiating any contract with the Tenderer (if the matter proceeds that far) and all other matters relating there to, including Governmental and Parliamentary reporting requirements.

Palladium may make such copies of Tenders, as it requires for these purposes.

2.4. Tenderer's Acknowledgment

A Tender is made on the basis that the Tenderer acknowledges that:

a) it examined the RFT documents (Sections 1 to 6 and Attachments 1 to 8)

b) the RFT specifies Palladium's rights in respect of the RFT and the Tenderer agrees that Palladium may exercise its rights as set out in the RFT in respect of the RFT process

c) it sought and examined all necessary information which is obtainable by making reasonable enquiries relevant to Palladium's requirements, including the risks and other circumstances which may affect a Tender

d) in lodging its Tender it did not rely on any express or implied statement, warranty or representation, whether verbal, written, or otherwise made by or on behalf of Palladium other than any statement, warranty or representation contained in the RFT

e) it did not use the improper assistance of Palladium's employees or ex-employees, or Commonwealth employees or ex-employees, or information unlawfully obtained from Palladium or the Commonwealth in compiling its Tender

f) it satisfied itself as to the correctness and sufficiency of its Tender

g) it is responsible for all costs and expenses related to its involvement in the RFT, in accordance with Section 2.2

h) Palladium and the Commonwealth are not responsible for any costs or expenses incurred by the Tenderer or any other person in responding to or taking any other action in relation to this RFT, whether or not Palladium terminates, varies or suspends the RFT process or takes any other action permitted under this RFT

i) the Tenderer understands that the selection of a successful Tenderer and/or Subcontractor must have DFAT agreement before Palladium can award a contract for the activity and that DFAT reserves its rights to accept or reject any Tenderer or Subcontractor for any reason

j) the Tenderer will comply with the rules set out in this RFT and as applicable to Emerging Leaders Programs.

2.5. Right to Conduct Security, Probity and Financial Checks

Palladium, in its absolute discretion, reserves the right to conduct such security, probity and/or financial checks on Tenders and/or Tenderers for the purpose of evaluating Tenders to this RFT or any other stage of the Tendering process for the services described in this RFT, as it deems necessary.

2.6. Palladium's Rights

Without limiting its rights at law or otherwise, without incurring any liability for any costs, losses or expenses or damages incurred by any Tenderer or Tenderers and without any obligation to inform any affected Tenderer or Tenderers of the grounds for such action, Palladium reserves the right in its absolute discretion at any time to:

a) subject to the RFT, evaluate Tenders as Palladium sees appropriate in the context of its requirements cease to proceed with the process outlined in this RFT or any subsequent process suspend or vary the process or any part of it

b) require additional information or clarification from any Tenderer or anyone else or provide additional information or clarification to any Tenderer

c) call for new Tenders

d) accept or reject any Tender that does not comply with this RFT

e) add to, alter, delete or exclude any services as required by Palladium.

2.7. Contracting Entity with Palladium

Palladium intends to contract with one legal entity only. If the Tenderer is a member of a consortium or teaming arrangement then the tender must stipulate which part(s) of Palladium's requirements each entity comprising the consortium or teaming arrangement would provide and how the entities would relate with each other to ensure full provision of the requirements.

Tenderers must provide detailed information on services proposed to be sub-contracted and will be expected to take full responsibility for all sub-contracted services.

2.8. Purchasing of Goods and Services

In its purchasing of goods and services, the appointed Contractor will be required to comply with Commonwealth Procurement Rules in order to achieve "value for money" through "open and effective competition" in the selection of suppliers. In addition, the Contractor will be required to follow Palladium's procedures as set out in the Contract and its Scope of Services. All procurement processes must be carefully documented. The Contractor will be liable to audit by Palladium or its nominee to ensure adherence to these principles. The sub-contractor must comply with Australian copyright law.

2.9. Relationship with Tenderers

Palladium is not bound contractually or in any other way to any Tenderer by this RFT.

2.10. Tender Validity

Tenders are accepted on the basis that they are valid for ninety (90) days from the closing date for receipt of Tenders.

2.11. Repeat Emerging Leaders Programs

Palladium may, from time to time and at its discretion, request a quotation from the selected Tenderer for repeat delivery of the program tendered for within the term of the Agreement. Upon receipt of the quotation, Palladium may enter negotiations with the selected Tenderer for repeat delivery of the program in the same or another Program country location.

Tenderers interested in being considered for repeat delivery should indicate their interest within the tender proposal submission and specify within the Financial Proposal (Schedules 5) which costs would not apply to a repeat delivery. Palladium shall only seek to enter negotiations for delivery of repeat programs in circumstances where value for money can be demonstrated by not going to market.

2.12. Contract Format

Palladium intends to enter negotiations with the preferred Tenderer. These negotiations will be based on a Contract including fixed and reimbursable cost components. The contract also provides for payments made against the achievement of measurable milestones for the delivery of defined outputs.

Palladium is responsible for ensuring that the Commonwealth obtains value for money through the tendering process.

The successful Tenderer will be required to enter into a Subcontractor Agreement with Palladium in the form outlined in Attachment 8 to this RFT. Tenderers seeking amendments to the Palladium Subcontractor Agreement Template (Attachment 8) are required to complete Attachment 8 and submit this along with the Tender by the closing date for tenders (Section 1.2). No representation is made by Palladium that proposed amendments will be accepted. This Palladium Subcontractor Agreement Template (Attachment 8) may be amended by Palladium to meet the specific requirements of the relevant Emerging Leaders Program.

2.13. Disclosure of Information Provided by Tenderers

Palladium's selection process for services is conducted in accordance with Commonwealth Procurement Rules. It is Palladium policy not to divulge to one Tenderer, information that has been provided in confidence by another.

Tenderers should note that the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) (The Act) gives members of the public rights of access to official documents of the Commonwealth Government and its Agencies. The Act extends, as far as possible, rights to access information in the possession of the Commonwealth Government and its Agencies, limited only by considerations for the protection of essential public interest and of the private and business affairs of persons in respect of whom information is collected and held by departments and public authorities.

2.14. Technical Assessment

Palladium will rank Tenderers on the basis of technical and financial assessments. Palladium is seeking a cost-effective solution to the design and delivery of the Emerging Leaders Program.

A Technical Assessment Panel (TAP), chaired by a representative from Palladium, will assess each submission using the criteria as set out in this RFT (Capacity and training experience, Response to program specification and Core personnel). The Technical Proposal of each submission will be worth 70% of the total assessment score and will be assessed separately to consideration of the Financial Proposal.

The result, together with any other factors relevant to the selection, will be considered by Palladium in deciding on the selection of the preferred Tenderer and/or award of Contract.

2.15. Financial Assessment

Following the technical assessment, the Financial Proposal of each submission will be assessed using the criteria set out in this RFT (Personnel program design and delivery cost, Fixed Management Fee). The Financial Proposal will be worth 30% of the total assessment score.

2.16. Contract Negotiations

Palladium will conduct contract negotiations only with the person identified in the Tender with the authority to negotiate and conclude a contract on behalf of the preferred Tenderer.

If Palladium is unable to satisfactorily conclude contract negotiations with the preferred Tenderer, Palladium reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to terminate the negotiations and enter contract negotiations with the next ranked Tenderer(s).

Palladium expects contract negotiations to be concluded within a reasonable period, nominally four (4) weeks.

Palladium reserves the right to negotiate with the most favourable Tenderer should it be deemed that ‘the offering prices are unreasonable or greater than the targets set in the planning process’ as per Commonwealth Procurement Rules.

2.17. Award of Contract

Any contract resulting from the Tender process outlined in this RFT is subject to the negotiation of a mutually acceptable contract based on the Palladium Subcontractor Agreement Template (Attachment 8).

2.18. Payment Policy

Tenderers should note that it is Palladium policy to pay accounts in arrears on the due date specified in the agreement with the supplier. Palladium’s standard terms are payment upon acceptance of goods or services and the receipt of a correctly rendered invoice, and subject to the delivery of outputs against specified milestones to Palladium’s satisfaction. Payment, however, does not mean that Palladium necessarily accepts that the work meets that milestone and Palladium reserves its rights to full reimbursement if DFAT does not accept that a milestone has been reached which justifies payment.

2.19. Intention to submit a tender

Interested parties are strongly encouraged to register their intention to submit a Tender no later than the date set out in Section 1.2.

Those parties who have registered their intention to submit a Tender by this time and date will be provided with any subsequent Addenda to the RFT. Parties who have not registered their intention to submit a Tender by this time and date will not receive Addenda to the RFT. Addenda may include responses to questions from other proposed Tenderers and/or amendments to the Scope of Services after the RFT is released.

Registrations of an intention to submit a Tender should be transmitted via email to: alp.tenders@thepalladiumgroup.com.

Registration can be made by providing the following information:

- name of organisation;
- name of contact person; and
- full contact details for receipt of Addenda.

Providing an intention to submit a Tender will not impose any obligation on any interested party to submit a Tender. Parties who have registered their intention to submit a Tender are requested to notify Palladium if their intentions change.

2.20. Deed of Novation

At the time of executing the contract the selected Tenderer will be required to execute a Deed of Novation and Substitution, in the appropriate form to ensure the rights of DFAT, in the event of DFAT issuing a note of substitution.

3. Tender Requirements

Prospective Tenderers should read this statement of Tender Requirements carefully, along with the key dates outlined in Section 1.2. At Palladium's sole discretion non-conforming Tenders may not be accepted.

3.1. Tender Format

Palladium's requirements with respect to the format of Tenders are as follows:

- Tenders are to be submitted in the name of the entity with which Palladium would enter the contract and include the name of the person authorised to negotiate and conclude a contract.
- The font type is to be no smaller than 10 point and in single column format.
- The Palladium, DFAT or ASEAN-Australia Centre logo is not to appear on any Tender documentation.
- Number of copies: One (1) electronic (.pdf) file of the Technical Proposal including all required annexes. One (1) electronic (.pdf) file of the Financial Proposal.
- The Financial Proposal is to be submitted as a separate pdf file.

4.3. Emerging Leaders Program details

ASEAN-Australia Centre Leadership Program goal	The goal of the ASEAN-Australia Centre Leadership Program is to build a network of future ASEAN leaders with strong connections to Australia, who will drive positive change across Australia and Southeast Asia.
Emerging Leaders Program goal	The Emerging Leaders Programs aim to promote stronger relations between Australia and ASEAN countries, by deepening mutual understanding and capabilities across a range of sectors and by also strengthening Southeast Asia literacy in Australia.
Context	- Over the past decade, ASEAN has emerged as a key actor in shaping regional economic architecture. The establishment of the ASEAN

	Economic Community and participation in major regional trade agreements such as the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) have solidified ASEAN's centrality in the global trading system. However, new strategic dynamics are reshaping this landscape. - Geoeconomic competition and shifting supply chains are compelling ASEAN economies to balance relations among major powers — notably between the United States, China, and regional partners like Australia, Japan, and India — while maintaining ASEAN centrality. - The Second Protocol to Amend the Agreement to Establishing the ASEAN-Australia-New Zealand Free Trade Area (ANZFTAA) Known as the Upgrade, the new arrangement came into effect in April 2025. The Upgrade introduces improved processes for traders to access the AANZFTA's existing tariff preferences and provides new market access commitments and regulatory certainty for service providers. The Upgrade introduces three new chapters to the Agreement: Micro-Small-and-Medium Enterprises, Government Procurement, and Trade and Sustainable Development (a first for ASEAN Free Trade Agreement commitments)[1]. - The green transition and rising global expectations around sustainability and decarbonisation are redefining the terms of trade. Emerging mechanisms such as carbon border adjustments, environmental, social and governance standards, and sustainable supply chains present both opportunities and challenges for ASEAN's export-driven economies. - The digital economy, projected to reach USD 330 billion by 2025, is transforming trade in services and e-commerce, yet digital divides and regulatory fragmentation remain barriers to inclusive growth. - In this context, leadership capacity across ASEAN must evolve to meet new forms of complexity in trade and regional cooperation. - Policymakers, business leaders, and analysts require a stronger grasp of how global rules, bilateral arrangements, and regional frameworks interact — and how these can be leveraged to advance ASEAN's long-term interests. - The ASEAN Economic Community Blueprint 2025 outlines deeper integration goals—harmonised trade standards, sustainable growth, and resilient supply chains. However, uneven trade capacities and emerging issues such as digital transformation, biosecurity, and sustainability require enhanced leadership and policy skills among mid-career professionals. - Australia, through its 2024 Southeast Asia Economic Strategy to 2040 and the establishment of a $2 billion Southeast Asia Investment Financing Facility, has prioritised regional trade and investment as central to shared prosperity.

Purpose	This program directly supports ASEAN and Australia's strategic objectives by: - Building leadership pipelines within ASEAN's trade and economic governance ecosystem. - Promoting people-to-people and institutional linkages across ASEAN. - Fostering policy literacy on emerging trade challenges, including digital, sustainable, and inclusive trade. - Reinforcing regional cooperation in an evolving and increasingly complex political and economic landscape.
Objectives	The Emerging Leaders Program on Leveraging Regional Trade Architecture is designed to build a new generation of dynamic, informed, and connected leaders capable of shaping ASEAN's trade and economic future in a rapidly changing global landscape. The program will: - Equip emerging leaders with a comprehensive understanding of the regional and global trade architecture, including how frameworks such as the ASEAN Economic Community, the RCEP and the AANZFTA can shape economic opportunities in the Indo-Pacific. - Build participants' capacity to design and advocate for policies that promote open, rules-based, and sustainable trade, supporting ASEAN's post-2025 economic vision. - Strengthen ASEAN–Australia linkages, reinforcing Australia's commitment to regional economic resilience, inclusive growth, and a stable Indo-Pacific. - Empower participants to become influential voices in their national and regional contexts, fostering evidence-based, inclusive, and future-oriented trade policy dialogue. - Build trust across the region, cultivating a cohort of cross-sectoral leaders who can bridge government, business, and civil society to advance shared prosperity through trade.

Program structure/overview	- Tenderers will be encouraged to propose innovative, flexible and value for money solutions to achieve the program objectives and maximise linkages with Australia and across the region.
	- The program may include a series of theoretical modules delivered virtually and must incorporate a one-week immersive experience in Australia.
	- The program will be delivered through a range of strategies/modes, which may include but not be limited to:
	  o Policy dialogues with industry and government counterparts
	  o Trade negotiation simulations
	  o Peer to peer learning and mentoring

	○ Scenario mapping, group analysis ○ Leadership panels ○ Site visits (in-Australia). - The program must also include strategies to build on the relationships developed through the program in a sustainable way. For example, Proposals might include completion of a practical project-based activity linked to participants' country and/or regional contexts. - Topics covered through the program may include, but not be limited to: ○ Analysis of ASEAN and Indo-Pacific trade frameworks ○ Trade, investment and regional value chains-supply chain resilience, industrial and green transition policies ○ Digital trade and innovation-e-commerce governance and data regulation ○ Sustainable and inclusive trade ○ Trade negotiation and policy influencing skills.
Institutional and individual linkages	- The program should place a strong focus on facilitating information exchanges with key stakeholders and counterparts across the region and in Australia. - Engagement with the following agencies/organisations is expected, but should not be limited to: ○ Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) ○ ASEAN Secretariat ○ Austrade ○ Productivity Commission ○ AANZFTA Support Unit ○ Chambers of Commerce networks ○ Asian Development Bank
Participant profile and selection criteria	- Participants may be drawn from early to mid-career professionals from ASEAN Member States and Australia. They may be working for example, within government agencies, civil society organisations, think tanks or the private sector that have expertise in national and regional trade frameworks. Participants will: - be citizens of and be residing in an ASEAN Member State[2] or Australia - hold a bachelor's degree or equivalent

[2] Residential requirement does not apply to Myanmar

	- have between five and ten years of professional experience related to international trade - be able to demonstrate how the program will enable them to lead trade policy dialogue and collaboration in their country and the region ASEAN participants will: - have professional working proficiency in English (recommended at least IELTS 6.5)
Gender Equality, Disability and Social Inclusion (GEDSI)	The Program is committed to inclusive development and recognises that achieving sustainable outcomes depends on the full and equitable participation of all people—regardless of gender, disability, ethnicity, sexual orientation, or socio-economic background. At a minimum, program providers must: • Integrate GEDSI concepts and practical tools into program sessions, site visits and mentoring • Ensure representation of diverse voices in examples, case studies, and presenters • Design learning activities that are inclusive and accessible to all participants • Monitor and report on GEDSI outcomes, with disaggregated data Gender equity will be adhered to in the selection process. Women, people from diverse ethnic backgrounds and people with disabilities who meet the participant profile will be encouraged to apply. The Program is inclusive and there may be participants with disability. The successful Tenderer will be provided with further information so that reasonable adjustments and accommodations can be made as required.
Communication and public diplomacy	The program provider will support and contribute to the program's communication and public diplomacy activities. This includes two social media posts during program delivery, an article and the provision of professional / high quality images. The program provider must comply the Centre's branding guidelines as outlined in the Emerging Leaders Program Provider Handbook.

4.4. Financial Details

Funding of Programs	The successful Tenderer is to submit a detailed indicative budget using the templates included in Attachment 5 to this RFT. The indicative budget will be finalised in conjunction with Palladium during contract negotiations.
Invoicing and Payment	Palladium will pay the Contractor the Service Fees in instalments known as Milestone Payments based on outputs as summarised below. The Milestone Payments will be payable to the Contractor progressively, on Palladium's acceptance of the satisfactory completion of identified outputs and a correctly rendered invoice.

	Where a Milestone Payment is to follow acceptance of a report, Palladium will not be obliged to make full payment until all outputs to be achieved by the Contractor in the period covered by the report have been achieved to its satisfaction and within the agreed timeframes.
Value for Money	Palladium is seeking a cost-effective solution to the design and delivery of the Emerging Leaders Program. A Program Budget template is provided at Attachment 5 and consists of two parts: Part A: Non-reimbursable (fixed) costs - A1: Fixed personnel costs design of programs - A2: Fixed personnel costs delivery of programs - A3: Fixed management fee (head office administration costs and fees) Part B: Reimbursable costs incurred by Contractor - B1: Personnel costs for delivery (e.g. specialist presenters) - B2: Program delivery costs - B3: Accommodation - B4: Participants allowances (per diem) - B5: Local travel and transfers - B6: Other costs and expenses NOTE: Estimated reimbursable costs in Part B of the Program Budget are to be included as part of the Financial Proposal. These costs are not considered in the Value for Money assessment but will be provided to the Centre as part of the approval process and will be subject to negotiation with the selected Tenderer as part of the contract process in line with mandated service levels.

4.5. Services to be provided

Overview	- Tenderers will be required to present innovative delivery strategies to achieve the program purpose and objectives, which represent value for money. - The successful Tenderer will be responsible for all aspects of the activity, from program design through to program completion. - The Emerging Leaders Program Provider Handbook stipulate the requirements for: staffing, pre-program preparation; delivery; logistics (e.g. in-Australia travel, orientation, accommodation, per diems and communications); welfare/pastoral care; MEL and reporting; financial management and; communications and public diplomacy. - The successful program provider will be required to conduct a Learning Needs Analysis (LNA) to assess participants' needs and expectations. Based on the LNA, the program provider will be required to make reasonable adjustments to enable equitable access to learning. The LNA must occur at the start of the Emerging Leaders Program.

	- Tenderers will be required to develop a program of learning and engagement that is contextualised to participant needs; and to demonstrate cultural understanding and the capacity to support diversity amongst the cohort. This approach will maximise opportunities for participants to apply their learning to their local context.
Key personnel	▪ Program Designer/s ▪ Program Leader/s ▪ Program Coordinator ▪ Welfare Officer Please note - this is a recommended list only based on anticipated inputs required of the program provider for program design and implementation.

5. Selection criteria and information required for technical assessment

5.1. Selection Criteria

A. Capacity and training experience: (10% of the technical assessment)

The Tenderer must demonstrate:

i. Technical capability and expertise to design and deliver an Emerging Leaders Program on Leveraging Regional Trade Architecture, as outlined in the Scope of Services at Section 4.

ii. Experience in the design and delivery of leadership programs for international participants, particularly Southeast Asian participants, including the ability to provide administrative, logistical and welfare support services as outlined in the Scope of Services Section 4 and the Emerging Leaders Program Provider Handbook.

B. Response to program specification: (60% of the technical assessment)

The Tenderer must provide details of their approach to the design and delivery of the Emerging Leaders Program. Specifically, Tenderers must demonstrate how they will:

i. Design and deliver an innovative program using an action-based learning approach to enable the achievement of the program purpose and objectives.

ii. Flexibly tailor program design and delivery to align with the individual needs of participants. Tenderers must describe how Southeast Asia contextualisation will be integrated throughout (i.e. in design and delivery).

iii. Facilitate the establishment of linkages between Southeast Asian participants and Australian participants and program stakeholders, to promote sustainable collaboration after program completion.

iv. Achieve value for money outcomes through program design and delivery.

v. Monitor and evaluate progress towards, and achievement of, individual participant learning outcomes, as well as the overall progress and success of the program against its purpose.

vi. Address key risks specific to the Emerging Leaders Program and participant cohort and mitigate/manage realised risks during the design and delivery of the program.

C. Core personnel: (30% of the technical assessment)

The Tenderer must demonstrate that the following team members have the appropriate qualifications and experience to design and implement the Emerging Leaders Program:

- Program Designer (1-2 nominees)
- Program Leader (1–2 nominees)
- Program Coordinator (1 nominee)
- Welfare Officer (1 nominee)

Terms of Reference for these positions are included in the Emerging Leaders Program Provider Handbook.

To enable a like for like assessment Tenderers must comply with the number of nominees indicated for each position above. It is understood that in some cases the nominee for the Program Designer and Program Leader will be the same.

It is expected that the successful Tenderer will field the key specialists identified in the proposal. Substitution of these specialists will require Palladium pre-approval.

5.2. Annexes

The Technical Proposal should include the following Annexes:

Annex 1 – Curricula Vitae (CVs)

A summary table (as below) is to be inserted at the beginning of this Annex. The table must be in landscape and must not exceed one A4 page. Submissions exceeding this limit will not be assessed.

Position	Name	Nationality	Gender	Brief description of key qualifications, expertise and experience (in bullet points)
Program Designer (1-2)
Program Leader (1-2)
Program Coordinator
Welfare Officer

Certified CVs are to be provided for each of the nominees, to a maximum of two (2) pages, for the following Core Personnel positions only. CVs should be tailored to demonstrate the nominated Core Personnel's suitability and capability to fulfil the specified role:

- Program Designer (1-2 nominees)
- Program Leader (1-2 nominees)
- Program Coordinator (1 nominee)
- Welfare Officer (1 nominee)

CVs should provide a clear response to the duties outlined in the Emerging Leaders Program Provider Handbook. A mandatory proforma for CVs can be found as Attachment 1 to this document.

Palladium regards the withdrawal or substitution of personnel to be grounds for the cancellation of negotiations and reserves the right to consider alternative offers where personnel nominated in Tenders are subsequently not available.

Annex 2 – Draft Program Outline

A Draft Program Outline using Attachment 2 to this document. Core delivery personnel should also be clearly identifiable for each of the sessions presented.

Annex 3 – Risk Mitigation Matrix

A Risk Mitigation Matrix identifying key risks specific to the successful design and delivery of the Emerging Leaders Program as per the Scope of Services. Tenderers are to complete the proforma as in Attachment 3 to this document (maximum 2 pages).

Annex 4 – Statutory Declaration

Format is provided as Attachment 4 to this RFT.

6. Selection Criteria and Information Required for Price Assessment

6.1. Introduction

Tenderers must submit a Financial Proposal as a part of their submission. Palladium is seeking a cost-effective training solution for 24 participants from ASEAN Member States and Australia.

6.2. Approach to the Financial Proposal

Palladium will undertake a financial price assessment of those Tenders assessed as technically suitable by the Technical Assessment Panel (TAP). Palladium reserves the right to provide the financial component of any Tender to TAP members for their examination in the context of resource adequacy evaluation against the selection criteria in the technical assessment process.

6.3. Limited Information Required for Price Assessment

The final Program Budget for the Program's Emerging Leaders Programs is negotiated with the preferred Tenderer and therefore the financial detail required for the Financial Proposal (i.e. price assessment) includes Tenderers personnel costs and management fee.

The Program Budget template is provided as Attachment 5 and consists of two parts, as outlined below.

Part A: Non-reimbursable (fixed) costs

- A1: Fixed personnel costs design of program
- A2: Fixed personnel costs delivery of program
- A3: Fixed management fee (head office administration costs and fees)

Part B: Reimbursable costs incurred by Contractor

- B1: Personnel costs for delivery (e.g. specialist presenters)
- B2: Program delivery costs
- B3: Accommodation
- B4: Participants allowances (per diem)
- B5: Local travel and transfers
- B6: Other costs and expenses

Please note – Estimated reimbursable costs associated with Part B of the Program Budget are to be included as part of the Financial Proposal. These costs are not assessed as part of the 'like-for-like" assessment but will be provided to DFAT as part of the approval process. They will be subject to negotiation with the selected Tenderer as part of the contract process in line with mandated service levels.

6.4. Content of Financial Proposal

Within the Financial Proposal Tenderers must address the criteria as set out in the table below. These criteria will be used to make a like-for-like financial comparison.

Financial Proposal Criteria
Criterion 1: Personnel program design cost

Financial Proposal Criteria
Personnel costs for the design of the program, expressed as number of days, per person, at a daily rate (i.e. cost of the Program Designer/s). The Tenderer needs to assess the composition of personnel and associated number of days per person required to design the program. Tenderers must provide details in Schedule 5.1: Fixed personnel costs for design of program.
Criterion 2: Personnel program delivery cost Personnel costs for the delivery of the program, expressed as number of days per person for each of the key delivery positions. Please see DFAT's Adviser Remuneration Framework as a guide. Tenderers may include a Program Co-Leader. The positions of Program Coordinator and Welfare Officer must include a nomination of one person only. Tenderers must provide details in Schedule 5.2: Fixed core personnel costs for delivery of program. Tenderers need to make their own assessment of how many days per person will be required to undertake these tasks, noting that this component forms part of the like-for-like assessment.
Criterion 3: Fixed management fee Total management fee to be charged by the Tenderer for the design and delivery of the program as described in the Scope of Services. This must include any applicable insurance as outlined in the Palladium Subcontractor Agreement Template (Attachment 9 of this RFT). Tenderers must provide details in Schedule 5.3: Fixed Management Fee. Tenderers must clearly detail any other fees to be charged to the program (for example financial costs, administration costs, special fees, staff on costs, etc.). Other fees will be subject to approval during the contract negotiation process. Noting this component forms part of the like-for-like assessment. The Fixed Management Fee is exclusive of personnel costs and any other costs directly associated with program design and delivery.

Tables for inclusion within the Financial Proposal, including those containing information required for the purposes of the financial assessment, are:

Schedule 5.1: Personnel Costs for Design of Program

Schedule 5.2: Personnel Costs for Delivery of Program

Schedule 5.3: Fixed Management Fee

Schedule 5.4: Cost Summary Schedule of Unit Costs for Palladium Price Comparison.

The format for each of these schedules is provided as Attachment 5 to this RFT. It is this information that is assessed as part of the like-for-like price comparison.

Tenderers must complete all schedules showing their firm quotations in whole Australian Dollars (AUD). Palladium requires these calculations for the purposes of disaggregating and checking the accuracy of Tenderers' total financial assessment figure. Only the final figure provided at Schedule 4 will be subject to the financial price assessment.

Tenderers should note that inaccurate or inconsistent calculations in the financial component of any Tender may, in Palladium's sole discretion, be grounds for Palladium to deem that the Tender is non-conforming and exclude it from further consideration under the RFT process.

Tenderers are also required to submit an indicative program budget using the template provided as Attachment 5.5 to this RFT. Information contained in this indicative budget will be provided to DFAT as part of the approval process and Sections A1, A2, A3 and B may be subject to review as part of contract negotiations.

6.5. Retention of Price Components of Tenders by Palladium

Palladium will retain the financial components of all Tenders, including those not considered technically suitable.

6.6. Escalation

There is no provision for escalation.

6.7. Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Unless expressly stated otherwise, all amounts payable under this Agreement are exclusive of GST.

Attachment 4 - Commonwealth of Australia Statutory Declaration

Commonwealth of Australia Statutory Declaration

I, (name, address and corporation of person making the declaration), do solemnly and sincerely declare, on behalf of the Tenderer and on behalf of myself, that:

Definitions

1. In this statutory declaration:

"Services" means the services described in the RFT for this Activity;

"Tenderer" means (details of tendering corporation as appropriate);

"Tender Price" means the fees, rates and prices indicated by a Tenderer as being the amounts for which that Tenderer is prepared to undertake the Services;

Preamble

2. I hold the position of (managing director or other title) of the Tenderer and am duly authorised by the Tenderer to make this declaration on its behalf.

Accuracy of Information

3. The information contained in the Tender including CVs of nominated personnel submitted by (name of organisation/company) is factually based and I accept that if such information is found by Palladium to be inaccurate or misleading this may, at Palladium's sole discretion, result in disqualification of the Tender.

Tenderer's Acknowledgment

4. That (name of organisation/company)'s Tender is made on the basis that it acknowledges that:

a) the RFT specifies Palladium's and DFAT's rights in respect of the RFT and (name of organisation/company) agrees that Palladium and DFAT may exercise its rights as set out in the RFT in respect of the RFT process;

b) (name of organisation/company) sought and examined all necessary information which is obtainable by making reasonable enquiries relevant to Palladium's requirements, including the risks and other circumstances which may affect a Tender;

c) in lodging its Tender (name of organisation/company) did not rely on any express or implied statement, warranty or representation, whether oral, written, or otherwise made by or on behalf of Palladium or DFAT other than any statement, warranty or representation contained in the RFT;

d) (name of organisation/company) did not use the improper assistance of Palladium or Commonwealth employees or ex-employees, or information unlawfully obtained from Palladium or the Commonwealth in compiling its Tender;

e) (name of organisation/company) satisfied itself as to the correctness and sufficiency of its Tender;

f) (name of organisation/company) is responsible for all costs and expenses related to its involvement in the RFT, including: preparation and lodgement of the Tender;

I. any subsequent negotiation; and

II. any other action or response in relation to the RFT.

g) Palladium and the Commonwealth are not responsible for any costs or expenses incurred by (name of organisation/company) or any other person in responding to or taking any other action in relation to the RFT, whether or not Palladium terminates, varies or suspends the RFT process or takes any other action permitted under the RFT; and

h) (name of organisation/company) will comply with the rules set out in the RFT.

Availability of Personnel

5. The personnel nominated in the Tender have been approached and have confirmed their availability to undertake the Services at the time specified.

Security of Personnel

6. The Tenderer warrants that all necessary arrangements will be made to ensure adequate protection/security for personnel in the field.

Tender Price

7. The Tenderer warrants that it can undertake and complete the Services for the

Tender Price.

8. Should the training be deemed successful and a request be received for the Tenderer to repeat the delivery of the Emerging Leaders Program within 12 months, the same tender price will be offered by that Tenderer.

Collusive Tendering

9. Neither the Tenderer nor any of its servants or agents had knowledge of either the technical component of the Tender or the Tender Price for the Services of any other Tenderer prior to the Tenderer submitting its Tender for the Services.

10. Neither the Tenderer nor any of its servants or agents disclosed the technical component of its Tender or the Tender Price for the Services submitted by the Tenderer to any other Tenderer who submitted a tender for the Services or to any other person or organisation prior to the close of Tenders.

Cover Bidding

11. Neither the Tenderer nor any of its servants or agents provided information to any other Tenderer, person or organisation, to assist another Tenderer for the Services to prepare a tender known as a “cover bid”, whereby the Tenderer was of the opinion or belief that another Tenderer did not intend to genuinely compete for the contract.

12. The Tenderer is genuinely competing for the contract and its Tender is not a “cover bid”.

Unsuccessful Tenderers’ Fees

13. Prior to the Tenderer submitting its tender for the Services neither the Tenderer nor any of its servants or agents entered into any contract, agreement, arrangement or understanding that the successful Tenderer for the Services would pay any money or would provide any other benefit or other financial advantage, to or for the benefit of any other Tenderer who unsuccessfully Tendered for the Tender.

Competitive Neutrality

14. The Tenderer has complied with the principles of competitive neutrality in preparing its Tender (publicly owned Tenderers only).

And I make this solemn declaration by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act 1959, and subject to the penalties provided by that Act for the making of false statements in statutory declarations, conscientiously believing the statements contained in this declaration to be true in every particular.
